Overview

Camille Joson is an Senior Associate Attorney in the firm's PERM Labor Certification Department, where she assists clients in the beginning stages of the green card process.

Camille earned her J.D. from South Texas College of Law Houston in May 2018. During her time as a law student, Camille joined the Immigration Clinic where she prepared many immigrant visa petitions. There she developed a passion for immigration law and gained valuable experience guiding clients as they moved through different stages of the immigration process.

Camille joined the firm as a law clerk in 2018. As a law clerk, she drafted numerous Requests for Evidence and appeals. Camille is determined to meet the needs of each client. She understands that each case is different and requires focus and attention.
